

Isaiah B Brunt, a former Darling Harbour studios owner operator had a successful career in the studio business, with the privilege to meet and work with major Australian artist's and bands during his time behind the console. Working with the cream of the crop of Australian popular bands of the 80's and 90's and projects with Midnight Oil's Rob Hirst, Cold Chisel's Steve Prestwich, Rick Brewster of the Angels are just a few to mention including international movie star Keanu Reeves while filming the Matrix in Sydney.

All the while Isaiah's passion for the blues was always simmering in the background he was reignited with his love for the blues when he dusted off his father's 1950's custom lap steel guitar.

In 2005 Isaiah started writing original songs and working at creating his own sound, 2010 saw Isaiah become the Sydney Blues Society performer of the year, representing Sydney as the opening act for the International Blues Showcase in Memphis in 2011 appearing on the Memphis Daily news.

No#1 Australasian Blues artist in the North America's Blues Underground scene alongside Buddy Guy (US) and John Mayall (UK).

Isaiah B Brunt's Trio is made up with bassist Mark Hornibrook a seasoned performer who has worked with Blues Queen Sally King, Country Matriarch Anne Kirkpatrick and Jazz Icon Billy Field. Drummer & Percussionist D Bruce Aitken returned to Australia after spending time in Canada performing with award winning Internationally Renowned Canadian Blues artist's.

Isaiah has performed in USA, Australia, New Zealand and the US.
